Generational Legacy

A silhouette of a family of four (a mother, a father, and two children) holding hands and standing on a grassy hill, looking out at a vibrant sunset with a bright sun and orange-hued clouds. The family is positioned on the left side of the frame, with the mother on the far left, followed by a young boy, a young girl, and the father on the far right.

Defining Legacy

01

LEGACY IS INTERNAL:
IT IS NOT JUST WHAT YOU LEAVE BEHIND,
BUT WHAT YOU CULTIVATE WITHIN.

02

THE FOUNDATION:
IT IS SHAPED BY THE VALUES YOU INVITE INTO YOUR HOME AND THE TRUTHS YOU CONFESS.

03

THE LIVING LEGACY:
YOU ARE A GENERATIONAL BLESSING, TEACHING YOUR CHILDREN HOW TO HANDLE THE GIANTS OF LIFE.

The Generational Blueprint

- Generational Faith (Deuteronomy 6:5–7): Diligently teach God's commandments to children and grandchildren.
- Lasting Impact (Proverbs 13:22): A good person leaves an inheritance to their children's children.
- Spiritual Heritage (Psalm 78:4): Tell the coming generation the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord.
- The Promise (Acts 2:39): The promise is for you, your children, and all who are far off.

The Power of Example (2 Timothy 1:5)

- Sincere Faith: Belief without masks; true and deep.
- Family Influence: Faith is built through everyday home life, just as Lois and Eunice taught Timothy.
- A Growing Chain: Godly values successfully passed down create a lasting spiritual impact.

Encouragement for the Journey

QUIET FAITHFULNESS

Most legacy-building
happens at home,
not on a stage;
small daily actions matter.

PERSONAL OWNERSHIP

Faith must eventually become the child's own choice, just as it did for Timothy.
